

A SPECTACULAR EVENT TO CELEBRATE 500
YEARS OF THE REFORMATION
28-30 JULY 2017

A Son et Lumière event to celebrate the life of Martin Luther and 500 years of Protestantism (1517-2017) will be held at the Musée du Désert in Mailet in the Cévennes on the 28th, 29th & 30th of July.

This spectacular performance will include more than 40 actors, 300 extras and numerous volunteers. They hope to welcome more than 1,000 spectators each evening.

During the performance there will be a live orchestra and choir, with fireworks, horses and hundreds of costumes from various periods.

Several specific events in Huguenot history are highlighted, including the assassination of Henri IV in 1610 and the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes in 1685.
